City of Janesville.

Wednesday Evening, Nov'r. 7, 1860.

Official Paper of the City.

THE GREAT VICTORY.

The news to-day, though for some reason the returns are very meagre, confirms the election of Lincoln and Hamlin. The whole of New England, New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, and Michigan have gone for the republicans, and to this list, undoubtedly will be added all of the other free states, except possibly New Jersey. The few returns from that state throw a shade of doubt upon the result there. Fusion seems to have been better patronized than elsewhere. But whatever the result may be in New Jersey, the election of Lincoln is regarded as certain. Let the people rejoice.

Receiving the Returns.

The republicans who gathered at this office last night to hear the election news, was so large that Lappin's Hall was brought into requisition, and was soon filled by an eager and enthusiastic crowd. There was a good time, which had its climax about the time the final returns of the general result in New York were read. It was a joyous time, to be remembered by those who participated in it.

To day our office is again crowded with good natured republicans, who do not help us much in writing editorials, but are anxious for the latest returns. We find it impossible to do much more than answer the questions of our friends, without writing much to-day.

She that marries a man because he is a "good match," must not be surprised if he turns out a "lucifer."

A Fruitless Visit.

Within the last week, Reymert, the democratic candidate for congress, has made a secret visit to the Norwegians of Green and Rock counties, soliciting the votes of that staunch class of Republicans on the ground of being a Norwegian, and pledging himself to every anti-slavery measure and principle he could think of. He traveled on foot from house to house, and left republican tickets with his own name in place of Mr. Hanchett's. The Monroe Sentinel gives the result of his visit in Green county:

Three cheers for the Norwegians of Jordan! Reymert has been around among the republican Norskies of Green county for the past week, endeavoring to get them to vote for him. To the honor of his countrymen be it said that he succeeded in turning not a vote from the side of freedom. Lars Larson, one of our leading Norwegian republicans, met him on the stump and at the polls, and gave him to understand that anti-slavery professions from an office holder under Buchanan could fool nobody who had any sympathy for the cause of freedom. When he appealed to them on the ground of nationality, he was met with the retort that they were American citizens, and as such knew no distinction of birth. His trickery was all foiled, and his begging rebuffed most nobly, as the majority from Jordan shows.

Reymert met with no better success in Rock county. The people he appealed to understood him thoroughly, and treated his appeals just as they deserved. All honor to the Norwagians!

The democracy of the town of Avon, in their treatment of the Norwegians of that town exhibited the spirit they feel towards foreigners who will not submit to dictation and vote the democratic ticket. They challenged every Norwegian voter, and compelled him to swear in his vote, notwithstanding many of them were as well known as any resident of the town. Such is the love of democrats for foreigners who don't vote to suit them.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

Great prairie fires are said to be in progress in Nebraska, and much damage has been done by them.

Out of 113 deaths reported to have taken place in St. Louis, last week, twenty are attributed to diphtheria.

A new and handsome theatre has been projected at Leavenworth city, K. T.

A large quantity of sorghum is being grown in North Carolina this season.

The third volume of Agassiz's "Contributions to the Natural History of the United States," will be issued in a few weeks; it will contain the views of the famous naturalist relative to Darwin's doctrine of the "Origin of Species."

LARGE YIELD OF WINE—PROFITABLE CROP.—George Weisner, of Washington, Mo., from 200 sticks, occupying about the fifteenth of an acre, made one hundred and fifty-five gallons of wine, worth $310!—Who can beat that? Our citizens are beginning to wake up to the importance and large profit of the grape crop.

An immense mill is now in progress of construction at Lewiston, Maine, which will cost the sum total of $700,000—the buildings $200,000, the machinery $500,000.—The working capacity will be 45,000 spindles, and it will give employment to about 1000 persons. It will be in operation about the begining of April next.

At a recent fair at Atlanta, Ga., a gay and fashionable young lady attracted considerable attention, because of a most handsome and neatly fitting copperas homespun dress which she wore, and of which she seemed very proud.

Mrs. John C. Calhoun, relict of the distinguished senator from South Carolina, has has been for some time on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Clemson, near Bladensburg, Va. Mrs. Calhoun is now sixty-eight years of age, with an eye scarcely dimmed by years.

Adam Larne, who escaped from Wyoming, Penn., at the time of the massacre, when he was nine years old, died recently at Galen, N. Y. His father and brother were slain by the Indians, and he, with his mother, lay hid in the woods, so near the line of retreat, that they could hear the footsteps of the savages while passing.

Wm. R. May of Pomfret, Ct., picked 40 bushels of apples from one tree. He had the curiosity to count the number of apples in one peck, and found 190, making 760 in one bushel, and consequently 30,400 apples grew upon the tree.

The governor of Vermont has recommended the passage of a law to make the vender of intoxicating drinks responsible for all injuries done by those to whom he sells.

A young lady writing as enthusiastic as young ladies generally do, portrays Garibaldi as a "dear old weather-beaten angel."

Our wants expand with our means of gratifying them, but seldom contract with those means.

Everything has a first cause, except perhaps some few unlucky candidates for legal practice.

Many a poor woman thinks she can do nothing without a husband, and when she gets one, finds that she can do nothing with him.

To possess a superior education without natural ability is to have a quiver full of arrows without a bow.

"Heroine" is perhaps as peculiar a word as any in our language; the first two letters of it are a male, the first three a female, the first four a brave man, and the whole word a brave woman.

Patrick Maloney, what do you say to the indictment—are you guilty or not guilty? "Arrah, musha, yer worship, how can I tell till I hear the evidence?"

"Does the razor take hold well?" inquired a darkey who was shaving a gentleman from the country. "Yes," replied the customer, with tears in his eyes, "it takes hold first rate, but it don't let go worth a cent."

At the last meeting of the "Boston Society for Medical Improvement," Dr. Jackson said the practice of opium eating was exceedingly common in our country towns, and this opinion was confirmed by other physicians present.

THE SHORTCOMINGS OF THE PULPIT.—Mrs. Stowe says in the Independent of Thursday:

The gospel has not died out of America—it is only like a strawberry bed, where the life has gone out of old plants into young runners. The gospel of Christ is expounded at this day more truly in many of the political speeches of the republican party than in some pulpits and some so-called religious papers. That invisible but mighty force which we call the spirit of the age is burning like an oven against the devices of injustice and cruelty; and those whose eyes are truly opened know Who it is that is breathing that powerful breath through all the ways of man—and, as the prophet of old, they fall on their faces "when the Spirit of the Lord passeth by."

In the following ambiguous passage, from a modern love-letter to a young lady, we recognize a somewhat peculiar delicacy of compliment: "Now I wish, my dear Adelina, my engagements would permit me to leave town and go to see you? It would be like visiting some old ruin, hallowed by time, and fraught with a thousand pleasing recollections!"

TRUISMS.—Take especial and seasonable care, if you are a man, that your children shall not have fool for a mother, and, if you are a woman, that they shall not have an ass for a father.

GARIBALDI'S PERSONAL HEROISM.—A correspondent of the Journal des Debates says:

The most brilliant episode of the action of the 1st of Oct. was the recapture of the battery at the foot of Mount San Angelo.—When I left Santa Maria, I knew this battery had been very much disabled in the morning. Garibaldi arrived at nine o'clock, when the enemy was thundering at it with all his strength, because it took him in flank, and was causing him severe loss. The triple battery courageously resisted the attack, and never slackened fire, when all at once the one situated at the foot of the hill became silent. The Royalists, to the number of 2,500, got round the hill, and rushing upon the guns, spiked five of them, and killed several of the men at their pieces.—Garibaldi on the San Tammaro side, soon observed the silence of his favorite battery, and an aid-de-camp from General Milwitz soon informed him of the disaster, which would probably have lost him the battle.—Garibaldi at once started off, crossed Santa Maria, followed by Medici and his staff, and collecting what men he could, cried out in a voice which caused all to shudder, "We are going to die, but the Italians must win the day; at all other points we have conquered." Followed by 100 men, at a rapid pace, Garibaldi, leading the way in a small disabled carriage, went right forward—But just as they got near the Casino of San Angelo, some Neapolitan chasseurs, who were lying on the ground, rose and fell upon them. The coachman drove his horses into a ditch, and formed a baricade of the carriage. Garibaldi jumped up, indignant, and went up to the chasseurs, shouting "Viva Italia!" Some of his men coming up at the same time, the enemy became demoralized and took to flight. Garibaldi was slightly wounded in the stomach, and his trowsers were riddled by two or three bullets. "If I only had another pair," he said, and without further remark he continued his march towards a battalion of 150 Hungarians, commanded by Gen. Mogyorady. He pointed to the Neapolitans who were in possession of the battery, and cried out to them, "Forward, my lads; disperse that rabble yonder for me!" This "rabble" consisted of a regiment of the line, a squadron of calvary, a company of chasseurs, and a company of artillery. The Hungarians, without waiting to count the numbers of the adversary, rushed forward and charged with the bayonet. After a contest of twenty minutes the battery was retaken, and once more they poured its storm of grape upon the Neapolitan troops, who fled in confusion across the fields. The Hungarians, in this encounter, had 30 men put hors de combat, the Neapolitans about 200. Garibaldi did not wait to dress his wound, but hurried elsewhere. The day, however, was now won.

FACTS ABOUT THE PONY EXPRESS.—The pony's quickest time from here to San Francisco is nine days and nine hours, but by aid of the telegraph news have been carried from the Atlantic to the Pacific in eight days, and San Francisco read the intelligence of the Heenan and Sayers fight 18 days after that brilliant mill was mauled.

Thirty pounds is the maximum we get of the mail; two dollars and a half the price of a quarter ounce letter; the best time yet made on any division of the road was on the section of forty miles between Kinnekuk and St. Joseph, which was prettily done in three hours and fifteen minutes.

Many horses have, of course, been killed or lost. In one instance the driver was killed, but the conscious pony saw the mail and pushed on to the next station.

But even this marvelous triumph of mind over material obstacles fails to satisfy a fast age and a fast people. While we write, two lines of telegraph are in process of construction from the Missouri valley to the Pacific. The line authorized by congress last winter will follow the fleet tracks of the superceded grays. The poles are already beyond Fort Kearney a distance of three hundred miles.

The other wire will bend over the crescent line now followed by the Butterfield mail. It is now completed to Fort Smith at this end, and from San Francisco to Los Angelos, four hundred and eighty miles, at the other end of the route.

The wires will gradually shorten the ponies until within a year there will be nothing left of these dashing specimens of equinity.—St. Joseph Free Democrat.

Although the Japanese, generally, have no ideas of religion or of a future state, such is not the case with the entire population; for there are several monastaries and religious colleges scattered over the country. At the College of Conay, which stands upon the edge of a deep lake, the enthusiastic priests frequently sacrifice themselves in their eagerness to enjoy the blessings of a future state. Deciding upon a day for the act they announce their intention to go to the other world, and their readiness to take any message for departed friends, carefully noting down such as they receive in books kept for the purpose. Then loading their wallets with alms, and taking a sharp scythe to clear the road to Paradise of many thorns and briars said to impede it, they paddle out in a canoe, with weights attached to their bodies, and spring into the deepest part of the lake. The canoe is recovered by the survivors and committed to the flames, that it shall never be defiled by any less holy use.

TERRIBLE CALAMITY NEAR DURAND.—On Sunday morning last, at 4 o'clock, Mr. L. V. Cleveland, residing two miles north of Durand, was awakened by the room in which he and his wife were sleeping being filled with smoke. They both immediately sprang from the bed, and Mrs. C. ran up stairs to rescue the children. She succeeded in reaching her youngest child, about four years old, but in attempting to descend fell, and died in fifteen minutes from the injuries she received. Mr. Cleveland succeeded in rescuing the rest of his children, but one of them had perished from suffocation. We also learn that the child Mrs. C. had in her arms when she fell has since died, making three out of the family thus suddenly removed from life. The house and contents were entirely consumed. The origin of the fire is unknown.—Beloit Journal.

ADVANTAGE OF STAND STILL HORSES.—On Tuesday Mr. Russell Wood, of Holyoke, Mass., while coming down a mountain with a load of wood, fell off, and was so paralyzed as to be unable to move, and was obliged to remain under the wagon wheels from three o'clock in the afternoon until eleven in the evening, when he was found and rescued by his alarmed and searching family. His horses had stood still for eight hours, although so impatient to be gone that they had pawed deep holes in the ground beneath them. If they had moved, Mr. Wood must have been killed.

Hon. Josiah Quincy will attain, if he lives, his ninetieth birthday in February next. He was a guest of John Hancock at a brilliant dinner party. He has been the associate of all the master minds who formed the republic. He was subject to the crown at his birth, and lived to see the struggles of the revolution—the creation of an empire. He is to-day the most interesting man in the nation—by association and by personal worth, and by the possession of vigorous intellect in that day of life when to the mass of mankind the light of the brain has set.

"I've risen from the bar to the bench," said a lawyer on quitting the profession, and taking up shoemaking.

ST. JOSEPH, Nov. 5.

By the Pony Express this morning we have San Francisco dates to the 24th of October. The news of the Pennsylvania election, reached San Francisco on the 22d, producing a sensation in political circles. The republicans are exceedingly jubilant, whilst the friends of the other candidates despair. The republicans are putting forth great efforts to carry the state. It is thought Senator Gwin's chances of re-election are very unfavorable.

An effort is making at Los Angelos to push forward the telegraph on the Butterfield route from that place to Colorado, one party having subscribed $10,000.

The Oregon legislature has decided to adjourn on the 10th inst., and meet in extra session next January. The bill providing for the election of representatives to congress, and rendering nugatory the recent congressional election has not passed, the senate refusing to concur in the house amendments.

BOMBAZINE.—The best blunder we have heard of for a long time was committed very recently in Richmond, by a negro servant, who had been sent by his mistress to borrow the last Blackwood from a neighbor. He delivered his message as follows: "Missis's compliments, and says, will you please send her the July number of the black bombazine!"

A western editor says he was taught, when a boy, to refrain from grumbling at two things, the one that which he cannot help, and the other, that which he can help.

RUPTURE CURED BY THE

Hard Rubber Rigg's Trusses.

THIS Truss has been in use in the City of New York for only a little over a year, and has already obtained a demand unprecedented. The best physicians in New York City, having tested it, unhesitatingly recommend it, and pronounce it

"The only Philosophical Truss in Use."

The construction of the pad is such that it cannot do injury, either by pressure of the spermatic cord, by obstructing the circulation of the blood—or by overstretching and enlarging the openings. Does not constantly press in the Rupture and thereby give call for a truss for life—like most of the trusses in use—but presses in four places, bringing the parts together, giving NATURE A CHANCE to cure, which it does in nearly all cases. It greatly RELIEVES AND BENEFITS THE WORST FORMED RUPTURE, and will cure ordinary Hernia, particularly in children and young subjects. The principle is so simple and apparent that it may be readily understood, therefore let the interested examine it and judge for themselves. This truss can be used in bathing, is always cleanly, very light, and cannot be soiled or worn out.

The undersigned has applied this intrument in the offices of the inventor during the past year, knows precisely how it should be adjusted and worn, and can give valuable hints and directions to patients. He has now opened a branch office at 194 Lake street, Chicago, for Western Trade. Will be at the American House in this city, this week, to show and supply all who may wish to see or procure it.

Call and examine for yourselves. Dealers supplied at New York prices. I. B. SEELY, Sole agent for Western States.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

The solid service long and successfully tried, and the many advantages the Ætna Insurance Company possess in its line, should not be overlooked by those ready to insure and understanding their bests interests.

During "stringent times" the necessity for reliable Insurance becomes an imperative duty—the ability of property holders to sustain loss being then much lessened.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER - - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

DAILY GAZETTE.

GREATEST GAME OF BILLARDS EVER PLAYED.—A "Billiard Tournament" is progressing in New York, in which the best players of the country are contending for a gold mounted cue. On Friday evening a match was played between Dudley Kavanagh and James Lynch, which was declared to be the most brilliant example of skill ever given in this country. The Evening Post says:

"After two feints or no counts on the part of both, Kavanagh began in earnest with a run of 80; Lynch followed in a run of 129, made by the most beautiful and delicate coaxing; Kavanagh than ran 33; Lynch replied with 56; Kavanagh put forth 42, in which there were several splendid round the table shots; Lynch answered with an equally splendid 35; and so on to the sixteenth innings, when Kavanagh, by means of a run of 113 on the seventh innings, made ont 101 points ahead. This game was so extraordinary that we give the score. But for Lynch's illness, which told upon him obviously after the seventh innings, it would have been, doubtless, the bes game ever played in this country. As it is, we do not believe that it was ever surpassed:

	Kavanagh.		Lynch.
	Runs.	Total.	Runs.	Total.
1	80	80	129	129
2	33	113	56	185
3	42	155	35	220
4	55	210	15	235
5	18	228	10	245
6	38	266	12	257
7	113	379	3	260
8	4	383	45	305
9	5	388	0	305
10	4	392	35	340
11	5	397	9	349
12	10	407	15	354
13	3	410	17	381
14	4	414	10	391
15	31	445	8	399
16	55	500

Kavanagh's average in the innings was thirty one and a-half, the greatness of which our readers may judge of from the fact that Phelan's average, in his great game with Secreiter, was not over fourteen."

Lynch was in bad health, being so weak that he could scarcely walk around the table. The tournament continues daily until Thursday, when Phelan will play against the winner, 500 points.

DR. LIVINGSTON, THE EXPLORER IN AFRICA HEARD FROM.—Livingstone is quietly awaiting in South Africa the arrival of the new and serviceable steamer which the lords of admiralty have just sent out, to replace the old and worn-out boat with which he has been steaming up and down the waters of the Zambesi and its tributaries. A concise and interesting account of the geography and ethnology of the valley watered by the most important of these tributaries, the Shire, was sent by him to the British association, and read at its last meeting. He describes the whole region as beautiful and healthy, and the soil as rich and productive. The natives are docile, and eager for trade. The river is navigable at all seasons for 150 miles, with the exception of a space of thirty miles, where the cataracts impede the progress of the steamer. Livingstone dwells more emphatically than ever upon the cotten growing capabilities of this portion of Africa. He scarcely excepts our own cotton belt, when he says that no part of the world is better adapted to the growth of this plant, which plays such an important role in commerce and politics. He looks forward to the day when the valleys of the Shire and the Nyassa shall furnish the looms of Manchester a quantity of the raw material as great as that now supplied by the southern states of the American Union. He affirms that one tract in the neighborhood of the Shire is especially fitted for the culture of sea-island cotton.

The Auroaa (Ind.) Commercial, mentioning the death of Mrs. Lynn of that place, from injuries recieved by accident, says:

She lingered from Sunday morning until Saturday, when she died. The fact of her existing at all, even for one hour, or one minute, with so severe an injury, is remarkable. Her neck was broken at the fifth cervical vertebra, and the spinal cord was greatly injured. The effect was to paralyze the entire body and limbs—leaving only the head with vitality. Still she did not suffer greatly. Her greatest distress arose from a feeling as if a broad iron band was tightly compressed around the chest. Her breathing grew gradually more and more difficult, and at last, with a gentle sigh, her spirit was wafted away.

George Hynes, a late survivor of Napoleon's grand army, now living at Ludlow, Mass., is brought forward into the light of newspaper notoriety, as presenting a counterpart to the case of Mr. Farnham. He is rising eighty years, and although quite feeble in body and mind, yet recalls with much interest and minuteness the scenes of his early life. He entered the French army in 1795, being about fifteen years of age, and continued a soldier until approaching the close of the great expedition to Moscow in 1812. He was wounded repeatedly, and carries upon his body several scars received in his battles. Among the engagements in which he fought were Austerlitz, Leipsic, Marengo and Borodino.—He was present as a cavalry soldier at the terrible crossing of the bridge of Lodi—was wounded in the engagement, and three of his brothers slain. He attended Napoleon in his expedition to Egypt, and with painful interest recalls the seige of Acre—the forced march across the burning sands of the desert, the thirst and hunger experienced, and their skirmishing with the Mamelukes, that ever harrassed their flank and rear. With the remainder of the French army he eventually returned to France, and never for once losing the place of hussar, he finally set out in that grand but ill-fated expedition to Moscow. When within the territory of Russia, and almost before the walls of Kremlin, dispirited by trials that environed the royal army on every side, for once his fealty to and love of Napoleon and France forsook him, and with thirty-five others he deserted; and safely made his escape. After many perils, hardships and circuitous travels, he at last arrived in the United States, where he will spend the remainder of his life.

The following is an exact copy of a printed notice which is at present posted in a Jersey stage:

Lost—a calf red. He had a white spot on one of his behind legs. He was a she calf. I will give three dollars to everybody what will bring him home.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

DAILY GAZETTE.

GREATEST GAME OF BILLARDS EVER PLAYED.—A "Billiard Tournament" is progressing in New York, in which the best players of the country are contending for a gold mounted cue. On Friday evening a match was played between Dudley Kavanagh and James Lynch, which was declared to be the most brilliant example of skill ever given in this country. The Evening Post says:

"After two feints or no counts on the part of both, Kavanagh began in earnest with a run of 80; Lynch followed in a run of 129, made by the most beautiful and delicate coaxing; Kavanagh than ran 33; Lynch replied with 56; Kavanagh put forth 42, in which there were several splendid round the table shots; Lynch answered with an equally splendid 35; and so on to the sixteenth innings, when Kavanagh, by means of a run of 113 on the seventh innings, made out 101 points ahead. This game was so extraordinary that we give the score. But for Lynch's illness, which told upon him obviously after the seventh innings, it would have been, doubtless, the bes game ever played in this country. As it is we do not believe that it was ever surpassed:

	Kavanagh. Runs.	Total.	Lynch. Runs.	Total.
1	80	80	129	129
2	33	113	56	185
3	42	155	35	220
4	55	210	15	235
5	18	228	10	245
6	38	266	12	257
7	113	379	3	260
8	4	383	45	305
9	5	388	0	305
10	4	392	35	340
11	5	397	9	349
12	10	407	15	354
13	3	410	17	381
14	4	414	10	391
15	31	445	8	399
16	55	500

Kavanagh's average in the innings was thirty one and a-half, the greatness of which our readers may judge of from the fact that Phelan's average, in his great game with Seereiter, was not over fourteen."

Lynch was in bad health, being so weak that he could scarcely walk around the table. The tournament continues daily until Thursday, when Phelan will play against the winner, 500 points.

DR. LIVINGSTON, THE EXPLORER IN AFRICA HEARD FROM.—Livingstone is quietly awaiting in South Africa the arrival of the new and serviceable steamer which the lords of admiralty have just sent out, to replace the old and worn-out boat with which he has been steaming up and down the waters of the Zambesi and its tributaries. A concise and interesting account of the geography and ethnology of the valley watered by the most important of these tributaries, the Shire, was sent by him to the British association, and read at its last meeting. He describes the whole region as beautiful and healthy, and the soil as rich and productive. The natives are docile, and eager for trade. The river is navigable at all seasons for 150 miles, with the exception of a space of thirty miles, where the cataracts impede the progress of the steamer. Livingstone dwells more emphatically than ever upon the cotton growing capabilities of this portion of Africa. He scarcely excepts our own cotton belt, when he says that no part of the world is better adapted to the growth of this plant, which plays such an important role in commerce and politics. He looks forward to the day when the valleys of the Shire and the Nyassa shall furnish the looms of Manchester a quantity of the raw material as great as that now supplied by the southern states of the American Union. He affirms that one tract in the neighborhood of the Shire is especially fitted for the culture of sea-island cotton.

The Auroaa (Ind.) Commercial, mentioning the death of Mrs. Lynu of that place, from injuries recieved by accident, says:

She lingered from Sunday morning until Saturday, when she died. The fact of her existing at all, even for one hour, or one minute, with so severe an injury, is remarkable. Her neck was broken at the fifth cerrical vertebra, and the spinal cord was greatly injured. The effect was to paralyze the entire body and limbs—leaving only the head with vitality. Still she did not suffer greatly. Her greatest distress arose from a feeling as if a broad iron band was tightly compressed around the chest. Her breathing grew gradually more and more difficult, and at last, with a gentle sigh, her spirit was wafted away.

George Hynes, a late survivor of Napoleon's grand army, now living at Ludlow, Mass., is brought forward into the light of newspaper notoriety, as presenting a counterpart to the case of Mr. Farnham. He is rising eighty years, and although quite feeble in body and mind, yet recalls with much interest and minuteness the scenes of his early life. He entered the French army in 1795, being about fifteen years of age, and continued a soldier until approaching the close of the great expedition to Moscow in 1812. He was wounded repeatedly, and carries upon his body several scars received in his battles. Among the engagements in which he fought were Austerlitz, Leipsic, Marengo and Borodino.—He was present as a cavalry soldier at the terrible crossing of the bridge of Lodi—was wounded in the engagement, and three of his brothers slain. He attended Napoleon in his expedition to Egypt, and with painful interest recalls the seige of Acre—the forced march across the burning sands of the desert, the thirst and hunger experienced, and their skirmishing with the Mamelukes, that ever harrassed their flank and rear. With the remainder of the French army he eventually returned to France, and never for once losing the place of hussar, he finally set out in that grand but ill-fated expedition to Moscow. When within the territory of Russia, and almost before the walls of Kremlin, dispirited by trials that environed the royal army on every side, for once his fealty to and love of Napoleon and France forsook him, and with thirty-five others he deserted, and safely made his escape. After many perils, hardships and circuitous travels, he at last arrived in the United States, where he will spend the remainder of his life.

The following is an exact copy of a printed notice which is at present posted in a Jersey stage:

Lost—a calf red. He had a white spot on one of his behind legs. He was a she calf. I will give three dollars to everybody what will bring him home.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
AND
BUILDERS.
Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,

on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone

of every description,

PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGIN

of any required dimension.

Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

☞ All Orders from the city or country will be promptly attended to.

Official Paper of the City.

THE GREAT VICTORY.

The news to-day, though for some reason the returns are very meagre, confirms the election of Lincoln and Hamlin. The whole of New England, New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, and Michigan have gone for the republicans, and to this list, undoubtedly will be added all of the other free states, except possibly New Jersey. The few returns from that state throw a shade of doubt upon the result there. Fusion seems to have been better patronized than elsewhere. But whatever the result may be in New Jersey, the election of Lincoln is regarded as certain. Let the people rejoice.

Receiving the Returns.

The republicans who gathered at this office last night to hear the election news, was so large that Lappin's Hall was brought into requisition, and was soon filled by an eager and enthusiastic crowd. There was a good time, which had its climax about the time the final returns of the general result in New York were read. It was a joyous time, to be remembered by those who participated in it.

To day our office is again crowded with good natured republicans, who do not help us much in writing editorials, but are anxious for the latest returns. We find it impossible to do much more than answer the questions of our friends, without writing much to-day.

She that marries a man because he is a "good match," must not be surprised if he turns out a "lucifer."

A Fruitless Visit.

Within the last week, Reymert, the democratic candidate for congress, has made a secret visit to the Norwegians of Green and Rock counties, soliciting the votes of that staunch class of Republicans on the ground of being a Norwegian, and pledging himself to every anti-slavery measure and principle he could think of. He traveled on foot from house to house, and left republican tickets with his own name in place of Mr. Hanchett's. The Monroe Sentinel gives the result of his visit in Green county:

Three cheers for the Norwegians of Jordan! Reymert has been around among the republican Norskies of Green county for the past week, endeavoring to get them to vote for him. To the honor of his countrymen be it said that he succeeded in turning not a vote from the side of freedom. Lars Larson, one of our leading Norwegian republicans, met him on the stump and at the polls, and gave him to understand that anti-slavery professions from an office holder under Buchanan could fool nobody who had any sympathy for the cause of freedom. When he appealed to them on the ground of nationality, he was met with the retort that they were American citizens, and as such knew no distinction of birth. His trickery was all foiled, and his begging rebuffed most nobly, as the majority from Jordan shows.

Reymert met with no better success in Rock county. The people he appealed to understood him thoroughly, and treated his appeals just as they deserved. All honor to the Norwegians!

The democracy of the town of Avon, in their treatment of the Norwegians of that town exhibited the spirit they feel towards foreigners who will not submit to dictation and vote the democratic ticket. They challenged every Norwegian voter, and compelled him to swear in his vote, notwithstanding many of them were as well known as any resident of the town. Such is the love of democrats for foreigners who don't vote to suit them.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

Great prairie fires are said to be in progress in Nebraska, and much damage has been done by them.

Out of 113 deaths reported to have taken place in St. Louis, last week, twenty are attributed to diphtheria.

A new and handsome theatre has been projected at Leavenworth city, K. T.

A large quantity of sorghum is being grown in North Carolina this season.

The third volume of Agassiz's "Contributions to the Natural History of the United States," will be issued in a few weeks; it will contain the views of the famous naturalist relative to Darwin's doctrine of the "Origin of Species."

LARGE YIELD OF WINE—PROFITABLE CROP.—George Weisner, of Washington, Mo., from 200 sticks, occupying about the fifteenth of an acre, made one hundred and fifty-five gallons of wine, worth $310!—Who can beat that? Our citizens are beginning to wake up to the importance and large profit of the grape crop.

An immense mill is now in progress of construction at Lewiston, Maine, which will cost the sum total of $700,000—the buildings $200,000, the machinery $500,000.—The working capacity will be 45,000 spindles, and it will give employment to about 1000 persons. It will be in operation about the begining of April next.

At a recent fair at Atlanta, Ga., a gay and fashionable young lady attracted considerable attention, because of a most handsome and neatly fitting copperas homespun dress which she wore, and of which she seemed very proud.

Mrs. John C. Calhoun, relict of the distinguished senator from South Carolina, has has been for some time on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Clemson, near Bladensburg, Va. Mrs. Calhoun is now sixty-eight years of age, with an eye scarcely dimmed by years.

Adam Larne, who escaped from Wyoming, Penn., at the time of the massacre, when he was nine years old, died recently at Galen, N. Y. His father and brother were slain by the Indians, and he, with his mother, lay hid in the woods, so near the line of retreat, that they could hear the foot steps of the savages while passing.

Wm. R. May of Pomfret, Ct., picked 40 bushels of apples from one tree. He had the curiosity to count the number of apples in one peck, and found 190, making 760 in one bushel, and consequently 30,400 apples grew upon the tree.

"Does the razor take hold well?" inquired a darkey who was shaving a gentleman from the country. "Yes," replied the customer, with tears in his eyes, "it takes hold first rate, but it don't let go worth a cent."

At the last meeting of the "Boston Society for Medical Improvement," Dr. Jackson said the practice of opium eating was exceedingly common in our country towns, and this opinion was confirmed by other physicians present.

MASSACHUSETTS.

The presidential vote of Mass., with the exception of nine small towns, foots up Lincoln 107,467; Douglas 34,007; Bell 22,017; Breckinridge 6,072. The vote for Andrews, rep. candidate for governor, falls 2,626 behind that for Lincoln. 38 rep. and 2 dem. elected to state senate; 20 reps. and 17 opposition, are elected to the house.—The vote in the 9th congressional district gives Brayley 894, Thayer 9,183. 5th dist. gives Appleton, union, 8,015, Burlingame, rep., 7,756.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.

A dispatch from Columbia, South Carolina, dated yesterday, says the legislature has postponed action on the Governor's suggestion to draw the state, until it is ascertained if Lincoln is really elected. There is an overwhelming majority in favor of calling a convention. Resolutions for sending commissioners to Georgia will be introduced to-morrow.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.

Last eve as the Hon. Robt. L. Meeks was conversing with ex-Gov. King in his house, at Jamaica, he was seized with an apoplectic fit and immediately expired. Mr. Meeks was a member of the Queens county republican convention, and member of assembly year before last and formerly engaged in mercantile business in this city.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.

The defeat of Burlingame somewhat depressed the enthusiasm of the republicans last night, and charges of fraud in the 1st ward are to be investigated.

Mr. Rice, who is elected from the 4th district, received quite an ovation from his friends during the evening.

The republicans are jubilant over the general result, and 100 guns will be fired to day.

The Market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.

Flour market heavy and 5c lower. Wheat market opened steady but with a farther advance in freights. Market closed quiet heavy and easy. 1,25a1,26 Mil. club afloat.

THE SHORTCOMINGS OF THE PULPIT.—Mrs. Stowe says in the Independent of Thursday:

The gospel has not died out of America—it is only like a strawberry bed, where the life has gone out of old plants into young runners. The gospel of Christ is expounded at this day more truly in many of the political speeches of the republican party than in some pulpits and some so-called religious papers. That invisible but mighty force which we call the spirit of the age is burning like an oven against the devices of injustice and cruelty; and those whose eyes are truly opened know Who it is that is breathing that powerful breath through all the ways of man—and, as the prophet of old, they fall on their faces "when the Spirit of the Lord passeth by."

In the following ambiguous passage, from a modern love-letter to a young lady, we recognize a somewhat peculiar delicacy of compliment: "Now I wish, my dear Adelina, my engagements would permit me to leave town and go to see you? It would be like visiting some old ruin, hallowed by time, and fraught with a thousand pleasing recollections!"

TRUISMS.—Take especial and seasonable care, if you are a man, that your children shall not have fool for a mother, and, if you are a woman, that they shall not have an ass for a father.

GARIBALDI'S PERSONAL HEROISM.—A correspondent of the Journal des Debates says:

The most brilliant episode of the action of the 1st of Oct. was the recapture of the battery at the foot of Mount San Angelo.—When I left Santa Maria, I knew this battery had been very much disabled in the morning. Garibaldi arrived at nine o'clock, when the enemy was thundering at it with all his strength, because it took him in flank, and was causing him severe loss. The triple battery courageously resisted the attack, and never slackened fire, when all at once the one situated at the foot of the hill became silent. The Royalists, to the number of 2,500, got round the hill, and rushing upon the guns, spiked five of them, and killed several of the men at their pieces.—Garibaldi on the San Tammaro side, soon observed the silence of his favorite battery, and an aid-de-camp from General Milwitz soon informed him of the disaster, which would probably have lost him the battle.—Garibaldi at once started off, crossed Santa Maria, followed by Medici and his staff, and collecting what men he could, cried out in a voice which caused all to shudder, "We are going to die, but the Italians must win the day; at all other points we have conquered." Followed by 100 men, at a rapid pace, Garibaldi, leading the way in a small disabled carriage, went right forward—But just as they got near the Casino of San Angelo, some Neapolitan chasseurs, who were lying on the ground, rose and fell upon them. The coachman drove his horses into a ditch, and formed a baricade of the carriage. Garibaldi jumped up, indignant, and went up to the chasseurs, shouting "Viva Italia!" Some of his men coming up at the same time, the enemy became demoralized and took to flight. Garibaldi was slightly wounded in the stomach, and his trowsers were riddled by two or three bullets. "If I only had another pair," he said, and without further remark he continued his march towards a battalion of 150 Hungarians, commanded by Gen. Mogyorady. He pointed to the Neapolitans who were in possession of the battery, and cried out to them, "Forward, my lads; disperse that rabble yonder for me!" This "rabble" consisted of a regiment of the line, a squadron of calvary, a company of chasseurs, and a company of artillery. The Hungarians, without waiting to count the numbers of the adversary, rushed forward and charged with the bayonet. After a contest of twenty minutes the battery was retaken, and once more they poured its storm of grape upon the Neapolitan troops, who fled in confusion across the fields. The Hungarians, in this encounter, had 30 men put hors de combat, the Neapolitans about 200. Garibaldi did not wait to dress his wound, but hurried elsewhere. The day, however, was now won.

FACTS ABOUT THE PONY EXPRESS.—The pony's quickest time from here to San Francisco is nine days and nine hours, but by aid of the telegraph news have been carried from the Atlantic to the Pacific in eight days, and San Francisco read the intelligence of the Heenan and Sayers fight 18 days after that brilliant mill was mauled.

Thirty pounds is the maximum we get of the mail; two dollars and a half the price of a quarter ounce letter; the best time yet made on any division of the road was on the section of forty miles between Kinnekuk and St. Joseph, which was prettily done in three hours and fifteen minutes.

Many horses have, of course, been killed or lost. In one instance the driver was killed, but the conscious pony saw the mail and pushed on to the next station.

But even this marvelous triumph of mind over material obstacles fails to satisfy a fast age and a fast people. While we write, two lines of telegraph are in process of construction from the Missouri valley to the Pacific. The line authorized by congress last winter will follow the fleet tracks of the superceded grays. The poles are already beyond Fort Kearney a distance of three hundred miles.

The other wire will bend over the crescent line now followed by the Butterfield mail. It is now completed to Fort Smith at this end, and from San Francisco to Los Angelos, four hundred and eighty miles, at the other end of the route.

The wires will gradually shorten the ponies until within a year there will be nothing left of these dashing specimens of equinity.—St. Joseph Free Democrat.

Although the Japanese, generally, have no ideas of religion or of a future state, such is not the case with the entire population; for there are several monastaries and religious colleges scattered over the country. At the College of Conay, which stands upon the edge of a deep lake, the enthusiastic priests frequently sacrifice themselves in their eagerness to enjoy the blessings of a future state. Deciding upon a day for the act they announce their intention to go to the other world, and their readiness to take any message for departed friends, carefully noting down such as they receive in books kept for the purpose. Then loading their wallets with alms, and taking a sharp scythe to clear the road to Paradise of many thorns and briars said to impede it, they paddle out in a canoe, with weights attached to their bodies, and spring into the deepest part of the lake. The canoe is recovered by the survivors and committed to the flames, that it shall never be defiled by any less holy use.

TERRIBLE CALAMITY NEAR DURAND.—On Sunday morning last, at 4 o'clock, Mr. L. V. Cleveland, residing two miles north of Durand, was awakened by the room in which he and his wife were sleeping being filled with smoke. They both immediately sprang from the bed, and Mrs. C. ran up stairs to rescue the children. She succeeded in reaching her youngest child, about four years old, but in attempting to descend fell, and died in fifteen minutes from the injuries she received. Mr. Cleveland succeeded in rescuing the rest of his children, but one of them had perished from suffocation. We also learn that the child Mrs. C. had in her arms when she fell has since died, making three out of the family thus suddenly removed from life. The house and contents were entirely consumed. The origin of the fire is unknown.—Beloit Journal.

ADVANTAGE OF STAND STILL HORSES.—On Tuesday Mr. Russell Wood, of Holyoke, Mass., while coming down a mountain with a load of wood, fell off, and was so paralyzed as to be unable to move, and was obliged to remain under the wagon wheels from three o'clock in the afternoon until eleven in the evening, when he was found and rescued by his alarmed and searching family. His horses had stood still for eight hours, although so impatient to be gone that they had pawed deep holes in the ground beneath them. If they had moved, Mr. Wood must have been killed.

Hon. Josiah Quincy will attain, if he lives, his ninetieth birthday in February next. He was a guest of John Hancock at a brilliant dinner party. He has been the associate of all the master minds who formed the republic. He was subject to the crown at his birth, and lived to see the struggles of the revolution—the creation of an empire. He is to-day the most interesting man in the nation—by association and by personal worth, and by the possession of vigorous intellect in that day of life when to the mass of mankind the light of the brain has set.

"I've risen from the bar to the bench," said a lawyer on quitting the profession, and taking up shoemaking.

ST. JOSEPH, Nov. 5.

By the Pony Express this morning we have San Francisco dates to the 24th of October. The news of the Pennsylvania election, reached San Francisco on the 22d, producing a sensation in political circles. The republicans are exceedingly jubilant, whilst the friends of the other candidates despair. The republicans are putting forth great efforts to carry the state. It is thought Senator Gwin's chances of re-election are very unfavorable.

An effort is making at Los Angelos to push forward the telegraph on the Butterfield route from that place to Colorado, one party having subscribed $10,000.

The Oregon legislature has decided to adjourn on the 10th inst., and meet in extra session next January. The bill providing for the election of representatives to congress, and rendering nugatory the recent congressional election has not passed, the senate refusing to concur in the house amendments.

BOMBAZINE.—The best blunder we have heard of for a long time was committed very recently in Richmond, by a negro servant, who had been sent by his mistress to borrow the last Blackwood from a neighbor. He delivered his message as follows: "Missis's compliments, and says, will you please send her the July number of the black bombazine!"

A western editor says he was taught, when a boy, to refrain from grumbling at two things, the one that which he cannot help, and the other, that which he can help.

RUPTURE CURED BY THE

Hard Rubber Rigg's Trusses.

THIS Truss has been in use in the City of New York for only a little over a year, and has already obtained a demand unprecedented. The best physicians in New York City, having tested it, unhesitatingly recommend it, and pronounce it

"The only Philosophical Truss in Use."

The construction of the pad is such that it cannot do injury, either by pressure of the spermatic cord, by obstructing the circulation of the blood—or by overstretching and enlarging the openings. Does not constantly press in the Rupture and thereby give call for a truss for life—like most of the trusses in use—but presses in four places, bringing the parts together, giving NATURE A CHANCE to cure, which it does in nearly all cases. It greatly RELIEVES AND BENEFITS THE WORST FORMED RUPTURE, and will cure ordinary Hernia, particularly in children and young subjects. The principle is so simple and apparent that it may be readily understood, therefore let the interested examine it and judge for themselves. This truss can be used in bathing, is always cleanly, very light, and cannot be soiled or worn out.

The undersigned has applied this intrument in the offices of the inventor during the past year, knows precisely how it should be adjusted and worn, and can give valuable hints and directions to patients. He has now opened a branch office at 194 Lake street, Chicago, for Western Trade. Will be at the American House in this city, this week, to show and supply all who may wish to see or procure it.

Call and exmine for yourselves. Dealers supplied at New York prices. I. B. SEELY, Sole agent for Western States.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.
The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.
Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

DAILY GAZETTE.

GREATEST GAME OF BILLARDS EVER PLAYED.—A "Billiard Tournament" is progressing in New York, in which the best players of the country are contending for a gold mounted cue. On Friday evening a match was played between Dudley Kavanagh and James Lynch, which was declared to be the most brilliant example of skill ever given in this country. The Evening Post says:
"After two feints or no counts on the part of both, Kavanagh began in earnest with a run of 80; Lynch followed in a run of 129, made by the most beautiful and delicate coaxing; Kavanagh than ran 33; Lynch replied with 56; Kavanagh put forth 42, in which there were several splendid round the table shots; Lynch answered with an equally splendid 35; and so on to the sixteenth innings, when Kavanagh, by means of a run of 113 on the seventh innings, made out 101 points ahead. This game was so extraordinary that we give the score. But for Lynch's illness, which told upon him obviously after the seventh innings, it would have been, doubtless, the best game ever played in this country. As it is we do not believe that it was ever surpassed:

	Kavanagh.		Lynch.
	Runs.	Total.	Runs.	Total.
1	80	80	129	129
2	33	113	56	185
3	42	155	35	220
4	55	210	15	235
5	18	228	10	245
6	38	266	12	257
7	113	379	3	260
8	4	383	45	305
9	5	388	0	305
10	4	392	35	340
11	5	397	9	349
12	10	407	15	354
13	3	410	17	381
14	4	414	10	391
15	31	445	8	399
16	55	500

Kavanagh's average in the innings was thirty one and a-half, the greatness of which our readers may judge of from the fact that Phelan's average, in his great game with Secreiter, was not over fourteen."
Lynch was in bad health, being so weak that he could scarcely walk around the table. The tournament continues daily until Thursday, when Phelan will play against the winner, 500 points.

DR. LIVINGSTON, THE EXPLORER IN AFRICA HEARD FROM.—Livingstone is quietly awaiting in South Africa the arrival of the new and serviceable steamer which the lords of admiralty have just sent out, to replace the old and worn-out boat with which he has been steaming up and down the waters of the Zambesi and its tributaries. A concise and interesting account of the geography and ethnology of the valley watered by the most important of these tributaries, the Shire, was sent by him to the British association, and read at its last meeting. He describes the whole region as beautiful and healthy, and the soil as rich and productive. The natives are docile, and eager for trade. The river is navigable at all seasons for 150 miles, with the exception of a space of thirty miles, where the cataracts impede the progress of the steamer. Livingstone dwells more emphatically than ever upon the cotton growing capabilities of this portion of Africa. He scarcely excepts our own cotton belt, when he says that no part of the world is better adapted to the growth of this plant, which plays such an important role in commerce and politics. He looks forward to the day when the valleys of the Shire and the Nyassa shall furnish the looms of Manchester a quantity of the raw material as great as that now supplied by the southern states of the American Union. He affirms that one tract in the neighborhood of the Shire is especially fitted for the culture of sea-island cotton.

The Aurora (Ind.) Commercial, mentioning the death of Mrs. Lynn of that place, from injuries recieved by accident, says:
She lingered from Sunday morning until Saturday, when she died. The fact of her existing at all, even for one hour, or one minute, with so severe an injury, is remarkable. Her neck was broken at the fifth cervical vertebra, and the spinal cord was greatly injured. The affect was to paralyze the entire body and limbs—leaving only the head with vitality. Still she did not suffer greatly. Her greatest distress arose from a feeling as if a broad iron band was tightly compressed around the chest. Her breathing grew gradually more and more difficult, and at last, with a gentle sigh, her spirit was wafted away.

George Hynes, a late survivor of Napoleon's grand army, now living at Ludlow, Mass., is brought forward into the light of newspaper notoriety, as presenting a counterpart to the case of Mr. Farnham. He is rising eighty years, and although quite feeble in body and mind, yet recalls with much interest and minuteness the scenes of of his early life. He entered the French army in 1795, being about fifteen years of age, and continued a soldier until approaching the close of the great expedition to Moscow in 1812. He was wounded repeatedly, and carries upon his body several scars received, in his battles. Among the engagements in which he fought were Austerlitz, Leipsic, Marengo and Borodino.—He was present as a cavalry soldier at the terrible crossing of the bridge of Lodi—was wounded in the engagement, and three of his brothers slain. He attended Napoleon in his expedition to Egypt, and with painful interest recalls the seige of Acre—the forced march across the burning sands of the desert, the thirst and hunger experienced, and their skirmishing with the Mamelukes, that ever harrassed their flank and rear. With the remainder of the French army he eventually returned to France, and never for once losing the place of hussar, he finally set out in that grand but ill-fated expedition to Moscow. When within the territory of Russia, and almost before the walls of Kremlin, dispirited by trials, that environed the royal army on every side, for once his fealty to and love of Napoleon and France forsook him, and with thirty-five others he deserted, and safely made his escape. After many perils, hardships and circuitous travels, he at last arrived in the United States, where he will spend the remainder of his life.

The following is an exact copy of a printed notice which is at present posted in a Jersey stage:
Lost—a calf red. He had a white spot on one of his behind legs. He was a she calf. I will give three dollars to everybody what will bring him home.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
AND BUILDERS.

Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

QUARRY OF FREESTONE,

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,
A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,
He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,

on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.
He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.
He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.
He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone

of every description.

PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGIN

of any required dimension.

Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.
In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.
☞ All Orders from the city or country will be promptly attended to.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

☞ The Democrat says that Mr. Graham has paid us a hundred dollars. As the hand organ is never turned without a motive, this may be a hint for Mr. Richardson to fork over to the Democrat, but we advise him not to do it. It is Mr. Graham who owes the Democrat that amount for the service it did him on Tuesday. Mr. Democrat, draw your check on Mr. Graham, who should pay you for your valuable assistance. Mr. Richardson instead of rewarding you, has a good claim for damages.

DEMOCRATS IN COUNCIL.—While the vote was being canvassed as the first ward polls, when the prospects of Richardson began to look blue, two democrats were overheard to remark: Says Jim to Jed, "the republicans whom we counted on to support Richardson, have nearly all deceived us. I believe almost every one has voted for Graham." Jed replied, solemnly, "The republicans are d——d unreliable voters for democrats." Exeunt two deceived squatterites.

READ, YE AFFLICTED.—Wear your old Trusses, with their filthiness and chafing, for life, or the "Hard Rubber Riggs' Truss," and be cured. Cases of ten years standing have been cured in Chicago, since May last, and were shown at the late Mechanics' Fair where this Truss received the Silver Medal over all other popular Trusses in use.—Cases can be shown in this city that have had "boughten experience," with the "Marsh Truss," and many other kinds, all failing to give satisfaction. By the "Riggs' Truss" all is accomplished that can be asked of a Truss to do, curing in nearly all common cases. The best surgeons in the United States say it is the only Truss fit to be used. The Agent will be at the American House this week only. See advertisment. nov7dawlt

INSPIRATIONAL LECTURES.—Miss Belle Scoregali, of whom notice was given last week, did not lecture on account of the bad weather. She will speak at the court room on Thursday and Friday of this week.

☞ Mr. Yancey admits in a letter to Mr. Meadows that under the influence of Mr. Jefferson, the "mental poison" of anti-slavery has spread through the country.—The Democrat still insists that Jefferson was not opposed to the increase of slavery and that the free soil provisos of the ordinances of 1784 and 1787 were not designed to check its growth.

POPULATION OF OHIO.—We have at length a complete return of the population of the state of Ohio, as found by the U. S. census just taken. It foots up thus:

	1860.	Increase.
Northern dist.,	1,081,795	166,059
Southern dist.,	1,262,187	197,055
Aggregate,	2,343,982	363,714

This is better than the first reports had led us to expect, though not to the expectations subsequently formed by the people of Ohio. Their state seems to have lost much of its progressive spirit.

How a poor fellow must feel, after sleeping and dreaming that he was a patriot, to wake up and find himself a Breckinridge man!

The New York court of appeals has just decided in relation to writing names on ballots, that the voter's intention, when obvious, is to be regarded.

The population of Arkansas is likely to exceed 500,000, and she will probably be entitled to four, if not five representatives to congress. She now sends but two.

George Tether is held for bigamy at Hartford, Ct. His reply to the charge is that the first wife 'treated him wrongfully,' and the second 'would marry him anyhow.'

On the eve of one memorable conflict, Washington lay down in his cloak under a tree, in the midst of his brave soldiers.—About midnight an officer approached cautiously, fearful of awakening him, when the chief called out, "Advance, sir, and deliver your errand. I lie here to think, and not to sleep."

Charles Dickens' story, "Hunted Down," which the London Critic pronounces a feeble emanation, had a six months' run with us before it was printed in All the Year Round. It occupied precisely ten pages in that periodical, and as the author is said to have received $5,000 for it from the Harpers, it netted him $500 per page. Reputation is money.

An afflicted husband was returning from the funeral of his wife, when a friend asked him how he felt. "Well," said he, pathetically, "think I feel the better for that little walk."

Many a man thinks it is virtue that keeps him from turning a rascal, when it is only a full stomach. One should be careful and not mistake potatoes for principles.

According to bachelor horticulture, the genuine domestic evergreen is—a husband.

Ladies, please be sweet, but don't be too formal. Be roses, but don't be prim-roses.

John Randolph met a personal enemy in the street one day, who refused to give him half the sidewalk, saying that he never turned out for a rascal. "I do," said Randolph, stepping aside, and politely raised his hat, "pass on, sir—pass on!"

If you respect yourself as much as you do others, you will be as careful to do nothing mean when alone as when in company.

One of the most important, but one of the most difficult things for a powerful mind is, to be its own master. Minerva should always be at hand, to restrain Achilles from blindly following his impulses and appetites, even those which are moral and intellectual as well as those which are animal and sensual. A pond may lie quiet in a plain; but a lake wants mountains to compass and hold it in.

CLOCKS ON TICK.—A speculative individual who presents a card bearing the name of "Mr. Oak, clock repairer," has lately been doing quite an extensive confidence business in N. Y. in the following manner: Calling at private house where there are no gentlemen at home he presents his card to the lady and says that her husband sent him for a clock which needed repairing.—The clock being given to him, he disappears and nothing further is heard of him.

Hint to travelers: "Do you see this stick, sir?" said a very stupid acquaintance to Sidney Smith; "this stick has been all round the world, sir." "Indeed," said the remorseless Sidney, "and yet it it is only a stick." The story is venerable, nevertheless pertinent.

There is more real virtue in goodness kindness and cheerfulness of heart, than in all the cold, canting solemnity that was ever put on as a mask for selfishness.

Phœnix Insurance Co. of Hartford.

We take pleasure in directing the attention of property-holders to the statement of the Phœnix Insurance Company, published in another column. This we consider one of the most reliable Insurance Companies in the country, and we think no one need have the least hesitancy in effecting an insurance in it. Their exhibit shows conclusive of its reliability. No one owning property should go without an insurance, and to such we recommend them to call on the agent and at once effect an insurance.—Home Journal, Ind.

Continental Insurance Company.

This prosperous corporation, in order to meet its present and growing wants, has just completed the purchase of the desirable property known as No. 102 Broadway and No. 1 Pine street. Possession will be given on or before the 1st of May next, when we learn a new and beautiful structure will at once be erected, suited to the requirements of the Company. No institution of a similar character in the nation, all things considered, can boast of such an unparallelled prosperity as can this. Commencing with a cash capital of half a million of dollars, it has steadily and rapidly grown, until its available assests now amount to about one million. The officers and directors are known all over the country as among the leading influential business men and capitalists of this city. No better, safer, or stronger Insurance Company exists than the Continental. May it live and grow a thousand years, and—continue to pay fat dividends.—New York Independent.

To the Public.

"Now is the accepted time"—to-morrow may be too late—delays are dangerous.—Have you got a store of goods? Have you a dwelling house? Have you any insurable property? Go at once to Dimock's Agency and have it insured. Do not let the melancholy words "he had no insurance" prove applicable to your case in event of a sweeping fire.

NOTHING LIKE IT TO RESTORE A DOUBTFUL CREDIT.

It is greatly to the credit of any owner or occupant of a building to have placed conspicuously over his door, any of the following leading companies' house plates. The Home of New York. The Phœnix of Hartford. The Continental of New York. The Security of New York. The Merchants of Hartford, or the Northern of London, England. Is your credit at the Banks getting below par, up with one of these plates and you are all right at the Rock County, the Central or at Hoyt's.—Every passer-by will say "there is a sound business man." Tell your New York creditors that you insure your lake freights in the reliable Old Home, and your goods after their arrival in any of these incomparable companies and your orders will at all times be filled, and at the lowest figures. A few more of these ornamental plates left at Dimock's Agency.

I desire to call the attention of the citizens of Janesville and Rock county, more in detail to these well known, reliable and prompt paying

THE GREAT VICTORY.

The news to-day, though for some reason the returns are very meagre, confirms the election of Lincoln and Hamlin. The whole of New England, New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, and Michigan have gone for the republicans, and to this list, undoubtedly will be added all of the other free states, except possibly New Jersey. The few returns from that state throw a shade of doubt upon the result there. Fusion seems to have been better patronized than elsewhere. But whatever the result may be in New Jersey, the election of Lincoln is regarded as certain. Let the people rejoice.

Receiving the Returns.

The republicans who gathered at this office last night to hear the election news, was so large that Lappin's Hall was brought into requisition, and was soon filled by an eager and enthusiastic crowd. There was a good time, which had its climax about the time the final returns of the general result in New York were read. It was a joyous time, to be remembered by those who participated in it.

To-day our office is again crowded with good natured republicans, who do not help us much in writing editorials, but are anxious for the latest returns. We find it impossible to do much more than answer the questions of our friends, without writing much to-day.

RETURNS FROM THE COUNTY.—The following additional returns have been received from this county:

Johnstown—Lincoln 188, Douglas 75.—Same on congressional and county tickets.

Newark—Lincoln 131, Douglas 56; Hanchett 71 majority; Bemis 73, and balance of county ticket 75.

Beloit town—79 majority for Lincoln.—Remainder of ticket about the same.

Union—Lincoln 303, Douglas 27, Breckinridge 1.

During the week ending Oct. 20th, the following post offices were established in Wisconsin: Marble Ridge, Sauk county; Nelson, Buffalo county. The following offices were discontinued: Rat Ridge, Winnebago county; Lamote, Shawana county; Mohawk, Portage county.

She that marries a man because he is a "good match," must not be surprised if he turns out a "lucifer."

A Fruitless Visit.

Within the last week, Reymert, the democratic candidate for congress, has made a secret visit to the Norwegians of Green and Rock counties, soliciting the votes of that staunch class of Republicans on the ground of being a Norwegian, and pledging himself to every anti-slavery measure and principle he could think of. He traveled on foot from house to house, and left republican tickets with his own name in place of Mr. Hanchett's. The Monroe Sentinel gives the result of his visit in Green county:

Three cheers for the Norwegians of Jordan! Reymert has been around among the republican Norskies of Green county for the past week, endeavoring to get them to vote for him. To the honor of his countrymen be it said that he succeeded in turning not a vote from the side of freedom. Lars Larson, one of our leading Norwegian republicans, met him on the stump and at the polls, and gave him to understand that anti-slavery professions from an office holder under Buchanan could fool nobody who had any sympathy for the cause of freedom. When he appealed to them on the ground of nationality, he was met with the retort that they were American citizens, and as such knew no distinction of birth. His trickery was all foiled, and his begging rebuffed most nobly, as the majority from Jordan shows.

Reymert met with no better success in Rock county. The people he appealed to understood him thoroughly, and treated his appeals just as they deserved. All honor to the Norwegians!

The democracy of the town of Avon, in their treatment of the Norwegians of that town exhibited the spirit they feel towards foreigners who will not submit to dictation and vote the democratic ticket. They challenged every Norwegian voter, and compelled him to swear in his vote, notwithstanding many of them were as well known as any resident of the town. Such is the love of democrats for foreigners who don't vote to suit them.

A large quantity of sorghum is being grown in North Carolina this season.

The third volume of Agassiz's "Contributions to the Natural History of the United States," will be issued in a few weeks; it will contain the views of the famous naturalist relative to Darwin's doctrine of the "Origin of Species."

LARGE YIELD OF WINE—PROFITABLE CROP.—George Weisner, of Washington, Mo., from 200 sticks, occupying about the fifteenth of an acre, made one hundred and fifty-five gallons of wine, worth $310!—Who can beat that? Our citizens are beginning to wake up to the importance and large profit of the grape crop.

An immense mill is now in progress of construction at Lewiston, Maine, which will cost the sum total of $700,000—the buildings $200,000, the machinery $500,000.—The working capacity will be 45,000 spindles, and it will give employment to about 1000 persons. It will be in operation about the begining of April next.

At a recent fair at Atlanta, Ga., a gay and fashionable young lady attracted considerable attention, because of a most handsome and neatly fitting copperas homespun dress which she wore, and of which she seemed very proud.

Mrs. John C. Calhoun, relict of the distinguished senator from South Carolina, has has been for some time on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Clemson, near Bladensburg, Va. Mrs. Calhoun is now sixty-eight years of age, with an eye scarcely dimmed by years.

Adam Larne, who escaped from Wyoming, Penn., at the time of the massacre, when he was nine years old, died recently at Galen, N. Y. His father and brother were slain by the Indians, and he, with his mother, lay hid in the woods, so near the line of retreat, that they could hear the foot steps of the savages while passing.

Wm. R. May of Pomfret, Ct., picked 40 bushels of apples from one tree. He had the curiosity to count the number of apples in one peck, and found 190, making 760 in one bushel, and consequently 30,400 apples grew upon the tree.

The governor of Vermont has recommended the passage of a law to make the vender of intoxicating drinks responsible for all injuries done by those to whom he sells.

A young lady writing as enthusiastic as young ladies generally do, portrays Garibaldi as a "dear old weather-beaten angel."

Our wants expand with our means of gratifying them, but seldom contract with those means.

Everything has a first cause, except perhaps some few unlucky candidates for legal practice.

Many a poor woman thinks she can do nothing without a husband, and when she gets one, finds that she can do nothing with him.

To possess a superior education without natural ability is to have a quiver full of arrows without a bow.

"Heroine" is perhaps as peculiar a word as any in our language; the first two letters of it are a male, the first three a female, the first four a brave man, and the whole word a brave woman.

Patrick Maloney, what do you say to the indictment—are you guilty or not guilty? "Arrah, musha, yer worship, how can I tell till I hear the evidence?"

"Does the razor take hold well?" inquired a darkey who was shaving a gentleman from the country. "Yes," replied the customer, with tears in his eyes, "it takes hold first rate, but it don't let go worth a cent."

At the last meeting of the "Boston Society for Medical Improvement," Dr. Jackson said the practice of opium eating was exceedingly common in our country towns, and this opinion was confirmed by other physicians present.

THE SHORTCOMINGS OF THE PULPIT.—Mrs. Stowe says in the Independent of Thursday:

The gospel has not died out of America—it is only like a strawberry bed, where the life has gone out of old plants into young runners. The gospel of Christ is expounded at this day more truly in many of the political speeches of the republican party than in some pulpits and some so-called religious papers. That invisible but mighty force which we call the spirit of the age is burning like an oven against the devices of injustice and cruelty; and those whose eyes are truly opened know Who it is that is breathing that powerful breath through all the ways of man—and, as the prophet of old, they fall on their faces "when the Spirit of the Lord passeth by."

In the following ambiguous passage, from a modern love-letter to a young lady, we recognize a somewhat peculiar delicacy of compliment: "Now I wish, my dear Adelina, my engagements would permit me to leave town and go to see you? It would be like visiting some old ruin, hallowed by time, and fraught with a thousand pleasing recollections!"

TRUISMS.—Take especial and seasonable care, if you are a man, that your children shall not have fool for a mother, and, if you are a woman, that they shall not have an ass for a father.

GARIBALDI'S PERSONAL HEROISM.—A correspondent of the Journal des Debates says:

The most brilliant episode of the action of the 1st of Oct. was the recapture of the battery at the foot of Mount San-Angelo.—When I left Santa Maria, I knew this battery had been very much disabled in the morning. Garibaldi arrived at nine o'clock, when the enemy was thundering at it with all his strength, because it took him in flank, and was causing him severe loss. The triple battery courageously resisted the attack, and never slackened fire, when all at once the one situated at the foot of the hill became silent. The Royalists, to the number of 2,500, got round the hill, and rushing upon the guns, spiked five of them, and killed several of the men at their pieces.—Garibaldi on the San Tammaro side, soon observed the silence of his favorite battery, and an aid-de-camp from General Milwitz soon informed him of the disaster, which would probably have lost him the battle.—Garibaldi at once started off, crossed Santa Maria, followed by Medici and his staff, and collecting what men he could, cried out in a voice which caused all to shudder, "We are going to die, but the Italians must win the day; at all other points we have conquered." Followed by 100 men, at a rapid pace, Garibaldi, leading the way in a small disabled carriage, went right forward—But just as they got near the Casino of San Angelo, some Neapolitan chasseurs, who were lying on the ground, rose and fell upon them. The coachman drove his horses into a ditch, and formed a baricade of the carriage. Garibaldi jumped up, indignant, and went up to the chasseurs, shouting "Viva Italia!" Some of his men coming up at the same time, the enemy became demoralized and took to flight. Garibaldi was slightly wounded in the stomach, and his trowsers were riddled by two or three bullets. "If I only had another pair," he said, and without further remark he continued his march towards a battalion of 150 Hungarians, commanded by Gen. Mogyorady. He pointed to the Neapolitans who were in possession of the battery, and cried out to them, "Forward, my lads; disperse that rabble yonder for me!" This "rabble" consisted of a regiment of the line, a squadron of calvary, a company of chasseurs, and a company of artillery. The Hungarians, without waiting to count the numbers of the adversary, rushed forward and charged with the bayonet. After a contest of twenty minutes the battery was retaken, and once more they poured its storm of grape upon the Neapolitan troops, who fled in confusion across the fields. The Hungarians, in this encounter, had 30 men put hors de combat, the Neapolitans about 200. Garibaldi did not wait to dress his wound, but hurried elsewhere. The day, however, was now won.

FACTS ABOUT THE PONY EXPRESS.—The pony's quickest time from here to San Francisco is nine days and nine hours, but by aid of the telegraph news have been carried from the Atlantic to the Pacific in eight days, and San Francisco read the intelligence of the Heenan and Sayers fight 18 days after that brilliant mill was mauled.

Thirty pounds is the maximum we get of the mail; two dollars and a half the price of a quarter ounce letter; the best time yet made on any division of the road was on the section of forty miles between Kinnekuk and St. Joseph, which was prettily done in three hours and fifteen minutes.

Many horses have, of course, been killed or lost. In one instance the driver was killed, but the conscious pony saw the mail and pushed on to the next station.

But even this marvelous triumph of mind over material obstacles fails to satisfy a fast age and a fast people. While we write, two lines of telegraph are in process of construction from the Missouri valley to the Pacific. The line authorized by congress last winter will follow the fleet tracks of the superceded grays. The poles are already beyond Fort Kearney a distance of three hundred miles.

The other wire will bend over the crescent line now followed by the Butterfield mail. It is now completed to Fort Smith at this end, and from San Francisco to Los Angelos, four hundred and eighty miles, at the other end of the route.

The wires will gradually shorten the ponies until within a year there will be nothing left of these dashing specimens of equinity.—St. Joseph Free Democrat.

Although the Japanese, generally, have no ideas of religion or of a future state, such is not the case with the entire population; for there are several monastaries and religious colleges scattered over the country. At the College of Conay, which stands upon the edge of a deep lake, the enthusiastic priests frequently sacrifice themselves in their eagerness to enjoy the blessings of a future state. Deciding upon a day for the act they announce their intention to go to the other world, and their readiness to take any message for departed friends, carefully noting down such as they receive in books kept for the purpose. Then loading their wallets with alms, and taking a sharp scythe to clear the road to Paradise of many thorns and briars said to impede it, they paddle out in a canoe, with weights attached to their bodies, and spring into the deepest part of the lake. The canoe is recovered by the survivors and committed to the flames, that it shall never be defiled by any less holy use.

TERRIBLE CALAMITY NEAR DURAND.—On Sunday morning last, at 4 o'clock, Mr. L. V. Cleveland, residing two miles north of Durand, was awakened by the room in which he and his wife were sleeping being filled with smoke. They both immediately sprang from the bed, and Mrs. C. ran up stairs to rescue the children. She succeeded in reaching her youngest child, about four years old, but in attempting to descend fell, and died in fifteen minutes from the injuries she received. Mr. Cleveland succeeded in rescuing the rest of his children, but one of them had perished from suffocation. We also learn that the child Mrs. C. had in her arms when she fell has since died, making three out of the family thus suddenly removed from life. The house and contents were entirely consumed. The origin of the fire is unknown.—Beloit Journal.

ADVANTAGE OF STAND STILL HORSES.—On Tuesday Mr. Russell Wood, of Holyoke, Mass., while coming down a mountain with a load of wood, fell off, and was so paralyzed as to be unable to move, and was obliged to remain under the wagon wheels from three o'clock in the afternoon until eleven in the evening, when he was found and rescued by his alarmed and searching family. His horses had stood still for eight hours, although so impatient to be gone that they had pawed deep holes in the ground beneath them. If they had moved, Mr. Wood must have been killed.

Hon. Josiah Quincy will attain, if he lives, his ninetieth birthday in February next. He was a guest of John Hancock at a brilliant dinner party. He has been the associate of all the master minds who formed the republic. He was subject to the crown at his birth, and lived to see the struggles of the revolution—the creation of an empire. He is to-day the most interesting man in the nation—by association and by personal worth, and by the possession of vigorous intellect in that day of life when to the mass of mankind the light of the brain has set.

"I've risen from the bar to the bench," said a lawyer on quitting the profession, and taking up shoemaking.

ST. JOSEPH, Nov. 5.

By the Pony Express this morning we have San Francisco dates to the 24th of October. The news of the Pennsylvania election, reached San Francisco on the 22d, producing a sensation in political circles. The republicans are exceedingly jubilant, whilst the friends of the other candidates despair. The republicans are putting forth great efforts to carry the state. It is thought Senator Gwin's chances of re-election are very unfavorable.

An effort is making at Los Angelos to push forward the telegraph on the Butterfield route from that place to Colorado, one party having subscribed $10,000.

The Oregon legislature has decided to adjourn on the 10th inst., and meet in extra session next January. The bill providing for the election of representatives to congress, and rendering nugatory the recent congressional election has not passed, the senate refusing to concur in the house amendments.

BOMBAZINE.—The best blunder we have heard of for a long time was committed very recently in Richmond, by a negro servant, who had been sent by his mistress to borrow the last Blackwood from a neighbor. He delivered his message as follows: "Missis's compliments, and says, will you please send her the July number of the black bombazine!"

A western editor says he was taught, when a boy, to refrain from grumbling at two things, the one that which he cannot help, and the other, that which he can help.

RUPTURE CURED BY THE

Hard Rubber Rigg's Trusses.

THIS Truss has been in use in the City of New York for only a little over a year, and has already obtained a demand unprecedented. The best physicians in New York City, having tested it, unhesitatingly recommend it, and pronounce it

"The only Philosophical Truss in Use."

The construction of the pad is such that it cannot do injury, either by pressure of the spermatic cord, by obstructing the circulation of the blood—or by overstretching and enlarging the openings. Does not constantly press in the Rupture and thereby give call for a truss for life—like most of the trusses in use—but presses in four places, bringing the parts together, giving NATURE A CHANCE to cure, which it does in nearly all cases. It greatly RELIEVES AND BENEFITS THE WORST FORMED RUPTURE, and will cure ordinary Hernia, particularly in children and young subjects. The principle is so simple and apparent that it may be readily understood, therefore let the interested examine it and judge for themselves. This truss can be used in bathing, is always cleanly, very light, and cannot be soiled or worn out.

The undersigned has applied this intrument in the offices of the inventor during the past year, knows precisely how it should be adjusted and worn, and can give valuable hints and directions to patients. He has now opened a branch office at 194 Lake street, Chicago, for Western Trade. Will be at the American House in this city, this week, to show and supply all who may wish to see or procure it.

MORTGAGES FOR SALE

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

☞ The Democrat says that Mr. Graham has paid us a hundred dollars. As the hand organ is never turned without a motive, this may be a hint for Mr. Richardson to fork over to the Democrat, but we advise him not to do it. It is Mr. Graham who owes the Democrat that amount for the service it did him on Tuesday. Mr. Democrat, draw your check on Mr. Graham, who should pay you for your valuable assistance. Mr. Richardson instead of rewarding you, has a good claim for damages.

DEMOCRATS IN COUNCIL.—While the vote was being canvassed at the first ward polls, when the prospects of Richardson began to look blue, two democrats were overheard to remark: Says Jim to Jed, "the republicans whom we counted on to support Richardson, have nearly all deceived us. I believe almost every one has voted for Graham." Jed replied, solemnly, "The republicans are d——d unreliable voters for democrats." Exeunt two deceived squatterites.

READ, YE AFFLICTED.—Wear your old Trusses, with their filthiness and chafing, for life, or the "Hard Rubber Rigga' Truss," and be cured. Cases of ten years standing have been cured in Chicago, since May last, and were shown at the late Mechanics' Fair where this Truss received the Silver Medal over all other popular Trusses in use.—Cases can be shown in this city that have had "boughten experience," with the "Marsh Truss," and many other kinds, all failing to give satisfaction. By the "Biggs' Truss" all is accomplished that can be asked of a Truss to do, curing in nearly all common cases. The best surgeons in the United States say it is the only Truss fit to be used. The Agent will be at the American House this week only. See advertisment. nov7dawlt

INSPIRATIONAL LECTURES.—Miss Belle Scoregall, of whom notice was given last week, did not lecture on account of the bad weather. She will speak at the court room on Thursday and Friday of this week.

☞ Mr. Yancey admits in a letter to Mr. Meadows that under the influence of Mr. Jefferson, the "mental poison" of anti-slavery has spread through the country.—The Democrat still insists that Jefferson was not opposed to the increase of slavery and that the free soil provisos of the ordinances of 1784 and 1787 were not designed to check its growth.

POPULATION OF OHIO.—We have at length a complete return of the population of the state of Ohio, as found by the U. S. census just taken. It foots up thus:

	1860.	1850.	Increase.
Northern dist.,	1,081,795	915,736	166,059
Southern dist.,	1,262,187	1,065,132	197,055
Aggregate,	2,343,982	1,980,868	363,714

This is better than the first reports had led us to expect, though not to the expectations subsequently formed by the people of Ohio. Their state seems to have lost much of its progressive spirit.

How a poor fellow must feel, after sleeping and dreaming that he was a patriot, to wake up and find himself a Breckinridge man!

The New York court of appeals has just decided in relation to writing names on ballots, that the voter's intention, when obvious, is to be regarded.

The population of Arkansas is likely to exceed 500,000, and she will probably be entitled to four, if not five representatives to congress. She now sends but two.

George Tether is held for bigamy at Hartford, Ct. His reply to the charge is that the first wife 'treated him wrongfully,' and the second 'would marry him anyhow.'

On the eve of one memorable conflict, Washington lay down in his cloak under a tree, in the midst of his brave soldiers.—About midnight an officer approached cautiously, fearful of awakening him, when the chief called out, "Advance, sir, and deliver your errand. I lie here to think, and not to sleep."

Charles Dickens' story, "Hunted Down," which the London Critic pronounces a feeble emanation, had a six months' run with us before it was printed in All the Year Round. It occupied precisely ten pages in that periodical, and as the author is said to have received $5,000 for it from the Harpers, it netted him $500 per page. Reputation is money.

An afflicted husband was returning from the funeral of his wife, when a friend asked him how he felt. "Well," said he, pathetically, "think I feel the better for that little walk."

Many a man thinks it is virtue that keeps him from turning a rascal, when it is only a full stomach. One should be careful and not mistake potatoes for principles.

According to bachelor horticulture, the genuine domestic evergreen is—a husband.

Ladies, please be sweet, but don't be too formal. Be roses, but don't be prim-roses.

John Randolph met a personal enemy in the street one day, who refused to give him half the sidewalk, saying that he never turned out for a rascal. "I do," said Randolph, stepping aside, and politely raised his hat, "pass on, sir—pass on!"

If you respect yourself as much as you do others, you will be as careful to do nothing mean when alone as when in company.

One of the most important, but one of the most difficult things for a powerful mind is, to be its own master. Minerva should always be at hand, to restrain Achilles from blindly following his impulses and appetites, even those which are moral and intellectual as well as those which are animal and sensual. A pond may lie quiet in a plain; but a lake wants mountains to compass and hold it in.

CLOCKS OR TICK.—A speculative individual who presents a card bearing the name of "Mr. Oak, clock repairer," has lately been doing quite an extensive confidence business in N. Y. in the following manner: Calling at private house where there are no gentlemen at home he presents his card to the lady and says that her husband sent him for a clock which needed repairing.—The clock being given to him, he disappears and nothing further is heard of him.

Hint to travelers: "Do you see this stick, sir?" said a very stupid acquaintance to Sidney Smith; "this stick has been all round the world, sir." "Indeed," said the remorseless Sidney, "and yet it it is only a stick." The story is venerable, nevertheless pertinent.

There is more real virtue in goodness kindness and cheerfulness of heart, than in all the cold, casting solemnity that was ever put on as a mask for selfishness.

Phœnix Insurance Co. of Hartford.

We take pleasure in directing the attention of property-holders to the statement of the Phœnix Insurance Company, published in another column. This we consider one of the most reliable Insurance Companies in the country, and we think no one need have the least hesitancy in effecting an insurance in it. Their exhibit shows conclusive of its reliability. No one owning property should go without an insurance, and to such we recommend them to call on the agent and at once effect an insurance.—Home Journal, Md.

Continental Insurance Company.

This prosperous corporation, in order to meet its present and growing wants, has just completed the purchase of the desirable property known as No. 102 Broadway and No. 1 Pine street. Possession will be given on or before the 1st of May next, when we learn a new and beautiful structure will at once be erected, suited to the requirements of the Company. No institution of a similar character in the nation, all things considered, can boast of such an unparallelled prosperity as can this. Commencing with a cash capital of half a million of dollars, it has steadily and rapidly grown, until its available assests now amount to about one million. The officers and directors are known all over the country as among the leading influential business men and capitalists of this city. No better, safer, or stronger Insurance Company exists than the Continental. May it live and grow a thousand years, and—continue to pay fat dividends.—New York Independent.

To the Public.

"Now is the accepted time"—to-morrow may be too late—delays are dangerous.—Have you got a store of goods? Have you a dwelling house? Have you any insurable property? Go at once to Dimock's Agency and have it insured. Do not let the melancholy words "he had no insurance" prove applicable to your case in event of a sweeping fire.

NOTHING LIKE IT TO RESTORE A DOUBTFUL CREDIT.

It is greatly to the credit of any owner or occupant of a building to have placed conspicuously over his door, any of the following leading companies' house plates. The Home of New York. The Phœnix of Hartford. The Continental of New York. The Security of New York. The Merchants of Hartford, or the Northern of London, England. In your credit at the Banks getting below par, up with one of these plates and you are all right at the Rock County, the Central or at Hoyt's.—Every passer-by will say "there is a sound business man." Tell your New York creditors that you insure your lake freights in the reliable Old Home, and your goods after their arrival in any of these incomparable companies and your orders will at all times be filled, and at the lowest figures. A few more of these ornamental plates left at Dimock's Agency.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

☞ The Democrat says that Mr. Graham has paid us a hundred dollars. As the hand organ is never turned without a motive, this may be a hint for Mr. Richardson to fork over to the Democrat, but we advise him not to do it. It is Mr. Graham who owes the Democrat that amount for the service it did him on Tuesday. Mr. Democrat, draw your check on Mr. Graham, who should pay you for your valuable assistance. Mr. Richardson instead of rewarding you, has a good claim for damages.

DEMOCRATS IN COUNCIL.—While the vote was being canvassed as the first ward polls, when the prospects of Richardson began to look blue, two democrats were overheard to remark: Says Jim to Jed, "the republicans whom we counted on to support Richardson, have nearly all deceived us. I believe almost every one has voted for Graham." Jed replied, solemnly, "The republicans are d——d unreliable voters for democrats." Exeunt two deceived squattorites.

READ, YE AFFLICTED.—Wear your old Trusses, with their filthiness and chafing, for life, or the "Hard Rubber Riggs' Truss," and be cured. Cases of ten years standing have been cured in Chicago, since May last, and were shown at the late Mechanics' Fair where this Truss received the Silver Medal over all other popular Trusses in use.—Cases can be shown in this city that have had "boughten experience," with the "Marsh Truss," and many other kinds, all failing to give satisfaction. By the "Riggs' Truss" all is accomplished that can be asked of a Truss to do, curing in nearly all common cases. The best surgeons in the United States say it is the only Truss fit to be used. The Agent will be at the American House this week only. See advertisment. nov7dawlt

INSPIRATIONAL LECTURES.—Miss Belle Scoregall, of whom notice was given last week, did not lecture on account of the bad weather. She will speak at the court room on Thursday and Friday of this week.

☞ Mr. Yancey admits in a letter to Mr. Meadows that under the influence of Mr. Jefferson, the "mental poison" of anti-slavery has spread through the country.—The Democrat still insists that Jefferson was not opposed to the increase of slavery and that the free soil provisos of the ordinances of 1784 and 1787 were not designed to check its growth.

POPULATION OF OHIO.—We have at length a complete return of the population of the state of Ohio, as found by the U. S. census just taken. It foots up thus:

	1860.	Increase.
Northern dist.,	1,081,795	166,059
Southern dist.,	1,262,187	197,055
Aggregate,	2,343,982	363,714

This is better than the first reports had led us to expect, though not to the expectations subsequently formed by the people of Ohio. Their state seems to have lost much of its progressive spirit.

How a poor fellow must feel, after sleeping and dreaming that he was a patriot, to wake up and find himself a Breckinridge man!

The New York court of appeals has just decided in relation to writing names on ballots, that the voter's intention, when obvious, is to be regarded.

The population of Arkansas is likely to exceed 500,000, and she will probably be entitled to four, if not five representatives to congress. She now sends but two.

George Tether is held for bigamy at Hartford, Ct. His reply to the charge is that the first wife 'treated him wrongfully,' and the second 'would marry him anyhow.'

On the eve of one memorable conflict, Washington lay down in his cloak under a tree, in the midst of his brave soldiers.—About midnight an officer approached cautiously, fearful of awakening him, when the chief called out, "Advance, sir, and deliver your errand. I lie here to think, and not to sleep."

Charles Dickens' story, "Hunted Down," which the London Critic pronounces a feeble emanation, had a six months' run with us before it was printed in All the Year Round. It occupied precisely ten pages in that periodical, and as the author is said to have received $5,000 for it from the Harpers, it netted him $500 per page. Reputation is money.

An afflicted husband was returning from the funeral of his wife, when a friend asked him how he felt. "Well," said he, pathetically, "think I feel the better for that little walk."

Many a man thinks it is virtue that keeps him from turning a rascal, when it is only a full stomach. One should be careful and not mistake potatoes for principles.

According to bachelor horticulture, the genuine domestic evergreen is—a husband.

Ladies, please be sweet, but don't be too formal. Be roses, but don't be prim-roses.

John Randolph met a personal enemy in the street one day, who refused to give him half the sidewalk, saying that he never turned out for a rascal. "I do," said Randolph, stepping aside, and politely raised his hat, "pass on, sir—pass on!"

If you respect yourself as much as you do others, you will be as careful to do nothing mean when alone as when in company.

One of the most important, but one of the most difficult things for a powerful mind is, to be its own master. Minerva should always be at hand, to restrain Achilles from blindly following his impulses and appetites, even those which are moral and intellectual as well as those which are animal and sensual. A pond may lie quiet in a plain; but a lake wants mountains to compass and hold it in.

CLOCKS ON TICK.—A speculative individual who presents a card bearing the name of "Mr. Oak, clock repairer," has lately been doing quite an extensive confidence business in N. Y. in the following manner: Calling at private house where there are no gentlemen at home he presents his card to the lady and says that her husband sent him for a clock which needed repairing.—The clock being given to him, he disappears, and nothing further is heard of him.

Hint to travelers: "Do you see this stick, sir?" said a very stupid acquaintance to Sidney Smith; "this stick has been all round the world, sir." "Indeed," said the remorseless Sidney, "and yet it is only a stick." The story is venerable, nevertheless pertinent.

There is more real virtue in goodness kindness and cheerfulness of heart, than in all the cold, canting solidity that was ever put on as a mask for selfishness.

Phœnix Insurance Co. of Hartford.

We take pleasure in directing the attention of property-holders to the statement of the Phœnix Insurance Company, published in another column. This we consider one of the most reliable Insurance Companies in the country; and we think no one need have the least hesitancy in effecting an insurance in it. Their exhibit shows conclusive of its reliability. No one owning property should go without an insurance, and to such we recommend them to call on the agent and at once effect an insurance.—Home Journal, Ind.

Continental Insurance Company.

This prosperous corporation, in order to meet its present and growing wants, has just completed the purchase of the desirable property known as No. 102 Broadway and No. 1 Pine street. Possession will be given on or before the 1st of May next, when we learn a new and beautiful structure will at once be erected, suited to the requirements of the Company. No institution of a similar character in the nation, all things considered, can boast of such an unparallelled prosperity as can this. Commencing with a cash capital of half a million of dollars, it has steadily and rapidly grown, until its available assests now amount to about one million. The officers and directors are known all over the country as among the leading influential business men and capitalists of this city. No better, safer, or stronger Insurance Company exists than the Continental. May it live and grow a thousand years, and—continue to pay fat dividends.—New York Independent.

To the Public.

"Now is the accepted time"—to-morrow may be too late—delays are dangerous.—Have you got a store of goods? Have you a dwelling house? Have you any insurable property? Go at once to Dimock's Agency and have it insured. Do not let the melancholy words "he had no insurance" prove applicable to your case in event of a sweeping fire.

NOTHING LIKE IT TO RESTORE A DOUBTFUL CREDIT.

It is greatly to the credit of any owner or occupant of a building to have placed conspicuously over his door, any of the following leading companies' house plates. The Home of New York. The Phœnix of Hartford. The Continental of New York. The Security of New York. The Merchants of Hartford, or the Northern of London, England. Is your credit at the Banks getting below par, up with one of these plates and you are all right at the Rock County, the Central or at Hoyt's.—Every passer-by will say "there is a sound business man." Tell your New York creditors that you insure your lake freights in the reliable Old Home, and your goods after their arrival in any of these incomparable companies and your orders will at all times be filled, and at the lowest figures. A few more of these ornamental plates left at Dimock's Agency.

I desire to call the attention of the citizens of Janesville and Rock county, more in detail to these well known, reliable and prompt paying

THESE popular BITTERS possess all the nourishing and invigorating properties of PURE OLD BOURBON WHISKEY, and are considered the most efficacious TONIC and STIMULANT, as well as the most agreeable STOMACHIC ever offered to the public. As a Tonic for Old People, delicate Ladies, convalescent invalids, and all weakly people, they cannot be surpassed; in all cases of Weakness or Debility, they will give immediate relief, and impart a strong healthy tone to the system. A trial will establish their merits over all other Tonics now in use. For LUNG COMPLAINTS, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DISEASES AND LIVER COMPLAINTS, they are an invaluable Remedy; and are a certain preventative of CHILLS AND FEVERS.

Put up in Quart Bottles, in cases of one and two dozen, and for sale by Druggists and Grocers everywhere.

The Foreigners Book of American Knowledge, or

THE UNITED STATES AND ITS PECULIARITIES.

CONTAINING a familiar explanation of the national traits, and social and domestic usages of its people, in 2 vols., 1st vol. 400 pages, 12 mo., price $1,—to appear as early as possible—by William B. West, Janesville, Wis.

Though favored by flattering testimonials from authors, publishers and the press, such is the present state of the book trade that an advance, to cover the expense of stereotype plates, is now required as the sine qua non of publication.

Under these circumstances the inhabitants of Janesville are respectfully called upon to enable their fellow citizen to submit his work, not only to the foreigners of this country, but to the people of the "United Kingdom," for their better understanding of American institutions and the advantages, privileges and greatness of this land of freedom.
